

SEMINAR SUCCESS

Ford & Warren's Commercial Property and property Litigation departments joined forces last week to deliver the first in a series of seminars to industry professionals.

On Thursday 28th October, the team produced a tailored seminar for employees from property surveyors DTZ. The attendees were informed on subjects such as dilapidations and lease renewals from speakers Ben Mackenzie, Paul Wilkinson and Matthew Dibb who took the time to ensure the information given was relevant and applicable in today's current climate.

Following the seminar attendee Niall Mackinnon from DTZ said: "It was a good all-round, informative seminar over a reasonable time period! The speakers were enthusiastic, entertaining and deeply knowledgeable".

The team will continue to deliver the free seminar; 'An Overview of Common Leasehold Issues, Rights, Remedies and Procedures' throughout November. If your company could benefit from one of Ford & Warren's free property seminars, please email Ben Mackenzie, Head of Property Litigation at Ford & Warren at: ben.mackenzie@forwarn.com.
